AIX

MAISON SAINT AIX believes that greatness can be achieved through passion, dedication, and one single promise:

to favour quality above all else. The critics concur.

Decanter and Wine Enthusiast Tasting notes.

“Plum and candy nose, crisp, medium-bodied, red fruit, pink grapefruit and some spice”

- Decanter

“This is a smooth, beautifully ripe wine. It is well balanced, with crisp red and orange fruits adding a refreshing background to the spice and acidity. This finely made wine is ready to drink.”

- Wine Enthusiast

The hotly anticipated new release AIX Rosé emerged from a scorching Provençal summer. So warm in fact, that harvest commenced early – on September 4th 2017 – in order to capture the quickly ripening berries at their peak.

Despite the fierce conditions, fruit quality was excellent: the berries, though small, were perfectly ripe and full of varietal flavour. Pristine Grenache, Syrah and Cinsault grapes were handled with the utmost care and vinified utilising the latest technology, to preserve delicate aromas and flavours.

AIX Rosé is made to be shared – generously, with style, passion, personality and fun, the ultimate expression of Provence.

AIX 2017 is the perfect rosé for all year round – as an aperitif, or centre stage on your dining table.
